The Empty Chair at the Seder: A workshop for the Bereaved
Monday 22 March 2010 at 7.00pm

Each year, the chairs around our Seder table are filled with different individuals who join together to retell, once again, the story of enslavement and our redemption. Yet some years are painfully different. A beloved family member or friend had died during passed years and is painfully missed. There is an empty chair at the Seder table. How can we go through the same rituals, when life has been so drastically altered?

Led by Rabbi Helen Freeman

Please RSVP by 15th March 2010 to Jon Freedman on 020 7535 0260 or email: j.freedman@wls.org.uk
